

D. M. CLEWELL.

JANUARY 30, 1895.

We thought we had got through with the Cloak and Cape trade for this season, but we find the demand continues.

We have had quite a respectable trade in Astrakan Capes all through the month of January, and have concluded to cultivate the business for a time.

We have made special contract with our Fur Manufacturer for a limited number of

ASTRAKAN CAPES

In 30 inch length Garments, that we can sell

At $10.00 and $15.00

That are of exceptional values.

If any of our friends and customers who are thinking of buying anything of the kind will come to our store, we will be glad to show them these nice goods, and if we haven't just the size, we will order one specially, and guarantee perfect satisfaction, or you need feel under no obligation to take it.

These Capes are very cheap, and nice, and good, and a perfectly safe thing to buy, as there is every prospect that they will be as good style (or even more desirable) another season than now.

We also have made a similar arrangement with our Cloak Manufacturer in supplying us with a specially pretty and good Black Cloth Cape (Double Cape, Military Style) that we will sell at $8.75. Quite as good and stylish as those we sold early at $13.00 and $15.00.

The demand for this style of Cape continues right along, and we have every reason to believe that many of our customers and friends will be glad to avail themselves of the opportunity to get a real nice, good style garment of this kind at the very low price we sell them at.

We still are doing a wonderful business in our Dress Goods Department for this season of the year.

The very low prices at which we continue to offer all and everything in our Wool Dress Goods Stock, attracts buyers constantly.

By the time this ad. reaches our friends the writer will be on his way to Jerusalem and "way stations," (stopping long enough in New York and Philadelphia to buy our Spring Goods, which will be in display at the "Cheap Store" in due season.)

You know that it is inherent to be somewhat vain in our conceit that we (all) are necessary in this world; that things are apt to go differently when we are absent from the post of duty. This may be true in a measure. Still my "Boys and Girls" persuade me that things will go on in my absence as well (they even in their loyalty to the institution, promise better!) though the proprietor may be in "Foreign Lands."

All this is very pleasant; and I will depart from Home and Friends, and everything dear to me in this world, with the comforting assurance that my loyal and faithful Boys and Girls will leave nothing undone to maintain the reputation of our establishment.

We hope to be able to tell you from week to week some of the things we do and see, [through our regular ads.] and to return with the Birds and Flowers of early Spring, rejuvenated and reinvigorated, for a prosperous and busy Spring and Summer business.

Till then, we bid you all good bye.

Rev. E. W. Preble, recently of Webster, Mass., but now connected with Buchtel College, will preach in the Universalist Church next Sunday, at 10:30 a. m., and evening. Of him it is said, "As a preacher he is thoughtful and able, and as a poet, he has written creditable poetry." All are cordially invited to hear him next Sunday.

The Buchtel College Glee and Mandolin Clubs need no commendation to the citizens of Ravenna and vicinity. Their former visits have given people a great desire to again hear them. And those who have not heard them cannot afford to lose the opportunity next Friday evening, Feb. 1st.

D. M. Clewell, always on the alert for the bargains of the day, has something of especial value to offer in Ladies' Cloaks. It is needless to say that a "bargain" with a CLEWELL label upon it, is GENUINE. This opportunity to secure an excellent, stylish Cloak is one which the ladies will wisely improve.

D. M. CLEWELL.

Miss Hattie L. Twitt, of this city, and Mr. Everett M. Jones, of Cleveland, were married at 2 o'clock this afternoon, the ceremony being performed by Rev. H. D. Stauffer, pastor of the M. E. Church, in the presence of relatives and a few invited friends, at the home of the bride's brother, C. E. Twitt, on North Chestnut street.

The decorations were of Florida moss, arranged in graceful pendant about the room, and frequently referred to the fact in appreciative tribute to the musical capabilities of the town. The concert which was prepared for public rendition by less than two weeks of training, bore ample testimony to such possibilities for the future. Who of our citizens does not remember with enthusiasm the days of the Philharmonic Society, and regret the apathy and general inertia responsible for its permanent discontinuance? And who would not rejoice in the establishment of a similar society in our community? If the visit of Prof. Myers shall have the effect of bringing about so desirable a consummation, the good fortune that brought him here would be a theme of congratulation to the city.

Those in attendance at the nuptials were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wright, Miss L. C. Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Twitt, of this city; W. J. Twitt and wife, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jones, of Cleveland, father and mother of the groom; Miss Rhoda C. Young, and F. Dwight Conner, of Cleveland, intimate friends of the bride and groom, and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Davis, of Cleveland.

An explosion of escaping gas caused a serious blaze at the old Miller House yesterday afternoon. Geo. Lee and Thomas Richards, managers of the U. S. Photo and Enlarging Company, occupy the building. Mr. Richards was slightly burned about the face. Loss about $100.

At the Grace Church Supper at Mrs. Thomas' Tuesday evening the sick child was disposed of by "guess," the one one hundred and number of pieces in the quilt becoming the possessor. The quilt contained 30 pieces. The guests being 25, Mrs. Harriet F. Beckwith being the fortunate guesser. The proceeds of the supper were $14.50.
